Tuscaloosa City Schools Receive Grants from CFWA

December 17, 2009, Tuscaloosa, Alabama

The Community Foundation of West Alabama (CFWA) recently issued grants totaling $3495 to area teachers. These grants were issued from the educational fund within the CFWA. Eight different schools in the Tuscaloosa City School System received 11 grants.

Community Foundations are charitable trusts that support local charities. Flexible, tax deductible plans are available to interested donors who wish to be a part of the support for the many good charitable causes in West Alabama. Those interested in additional information about the Community Foundation of West Alabama can contact Glenn Taylor at 205-366-0698 or visit the website at www.thecfwa.org.

Representatives from Alberta Elementary, Central Primary School, Northington Elementary, Northridge High School, University Place School, Woodland Forrest Elementary and the TCSS Central Office are pictured with Glenn Taylor from the Community Foundation receiving their grants at a recent school board meeting.
